

CFRE Review Course

Sponsored by the Central Ohio Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals

The AFP CFRE Review Course offers development professionals an opportunity to review the main components of a complete fundraising program. It is a two-day, intensive program that focuses on the terminology, organization, and structure of a development program.

Recommended for professionals with three or more years of fundraising experience who are interested in pursuing their CFRE certification.

Course Overview:

- Module 1: Why Philanthropy
- Module 2: Current and Prospective Donor Research
- Module 3: Marketing & Communications for Fundraising
- Module 4: Developing a Comprehensive Solicitation Program
- Module 5: Building & Sustaining Relationships
- Module 6: Securing the Gift
- Module 7: Volunteer Involvement
- Module 8: Management
- Module 9: Accountability

The course was developed for intermediate-level fundraising professionals who want a quick and comprehensive overview of fundraising principles, at a step above the fundamental level. Its content is organized around the CFRE exam domains: Current and Prospective Donor Research, Securing the Gift, Relationship Building, Volunteer Involvement, Management, and Accountability. Participants engage in fundraising problem-solving with top-notch professionals and network with fundraising peers.
