

FAQs

Can I submit more than one nomination?

Yes! There is no limit to the number of nominees you're permitted to lift up.

Can I re-submit a nomination from a previous year?

If you would like to nominate an individual, foundation, group or company that you previously nominated, but was not selected as the honoree, you can do so. That said, be sure to observe all current nomination guidelines, word limits, and submission requirements. Also, ensure that your narrative is up-to-date and consider acquiring fresh letters of support to further strengthen your updated nomination.

I'm not affiliated with the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP). Can I still submit a nomination?

Yes! Nominations are welcome from anyone and everyone who wishes to pay tribute to philanthropists in our community. You do not need to be an AFP member.

Can I nominate a previous honoree?

Previous honorees are eligible to be recognized in the same award more than once, but only after 10 years have passed since they were last recognized. Additionally, previous individual honorees should only be nominated based on NEW projects, programs, and initiatives supported. For this reason, nomination of a previous honoree should not come from the same individual or organization that nominated the honoree when they were previously recognized.

Previous honorees are also eligible to be recognized in a different award category, but only after 5 years have passed since they were recognized in any award category.

Can I submit supplemental materials in addition to the nomination, like articles or annual reports?

No. Please only provide the nomination materials listed in Nomination Process – Guidelines item #2 on the previous page (i.e. nominator's information, nominee's information, nomination narrative, and letter(s) of support). If you upload supplemental documents or reports in lieu of or in addition to letters of support, they will be discarded.

My nominee is not available to attend the NPD award event. Can I still nominate them?

In order to be considered a nominee must be living (at the time of nomination) and able to attend the NPD award luncheon.

How do I nominate someone for the Leave a Legacy Award?
